Homosexuality.

REMARKS (Use same A-5 for Reply when space permits) - REMARQUES (Si l'espace le permet, répondre sur cette formule)

Here is that article which appeared in last nights Ottawa Citizen.

I don't know what the population for Minneapolis St. Paul would be but a figure of 100,000 homosexuals would be much greater than I would have imagined. Using this as a measurement, the numbers generally might be far in excess than I would have guessed. Possibly even in our Organization.

In our own case, it has always bothered me somewhat that an employee was forced to tell his wife, as one of the conditions of retaining employment. No doubt, she must think considerably less of him now, even though she has supported him, according to him. Is there ever really a way to turn around a gay person. From this article, I would think not.

At any rate, I found the article interesting and food for thought.

I agree with you
