Re: Married Employee Benefits Pursuant To IPD and LACD

This is further to my previous fax of 94-07-27.

I have now received relevant information from the Compensation policy center in HQ, a copy of which is attached for your information. While the Force has granted approval for you to live with your partner from a security point of view, it seems very apparent that Treasury Board Of Canada has not, to this point in time, provided any married benefits for same sex relationships. The Treasury Board policy is one which is made externally and beyond the control of the RCMP and does not allow us any latitude for alternate decision making.

In view of the information provided and pursuant to my designation as the Deputy Head, I must rule that you are not entitled to any of the Married Benefits provided for in the Isolated Posts Directive and Living and Accommodations Directive.

Should you have any questions, feel free to call me or the Admin NCO, S/Sgt. George Inman at 403 920-8351.
