Dear Ms. MacDonald:

I have your letter to Mr. Morley of September 13, 1977, and the attached correspondence dealing with matters raised by the National Gay Rights Coalition. Mr. Morley is on leave at present but will be returning during the first week in October and I will bring the matter to his attention at that time.

On first inspection, it appears that the main burden of Mr. Garmaise's concern relates to the hiring of homosexuals in the Public Service but there are a number of requests for definitions of various kinds which we would be happy to provide. This information will be available for discussion between yourself and Mr. Morley.

Yours sincerely,

(sgd) RJM

R. J. Martin,
Acting Deputy Secretary.
