orders, direction has been given that cases of this

8

nature would not be disposed of, short of the personal

9

sanction of the Assistant Deputy Minister of Personnel

10

or myself having reviewed the specific circumstances

11

involved.

12

> >No, it has not been business as usual.

14

> >*BOMr. Robinson: Mr. Chairman, has a written 15

directive to this effect been prepared?

17

> >*BOMr. Theriault: I have seen the direction

19

in writing, yes I have given the direction verbally,

20

discussed it a number of times with the Assistant 21

Deputy Minister of Personnel and there is full

22

knowledge among all concerned personnel staffs as to 23

the special safeguards that have been xxxxxxxxxxxx in 24

the interim period.

25

> >*BOMr. Robinson: Well, Mr. Chairman, I would

ask that General Theriault forward to the committee a 28

copy of any written directive which he has apparently 29

seen on this matter. It does exist, does it? 30

> >*BOGen Theriault: The written directive that 32

I have referred to there has been referenced to 33

precisely the substance of the comments that I have 34

been making in responding to Mr. Robinson as to the 35

regiment that is applicable right now. 36

> >*BOMr. Robinson: And I would ask that a copy 38

of that written directive be forwarded to this 39

committee. General Theriault, you will do that will 40

you? 41

> >*BOGen Theriault: Yes, I will provide 43

you. I should be able to provide you with that. 44

> >*BOMr. Robinson: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. 45

> >I would like to ask General Theriault then 46

how many individuals have in fact been released under 47

CPAO 19.(20) (xxx--verify throughout) in 1985 and 1986. 50
