Dear Mr. Piché:

RE: [REDACTED] V. HER MAJESTY

Thank you for your letter of 20 November 1992, in this matter.

As suggested by Mrs. McIsaac in her letter of 2 November 1992, a copy of which was sent to your office, it requested that an offer of settlement be made in writing by your office without delay to [REDACTED] counsel for [REDACTED] as an inclusive amount for damages in all categories, plus solicitor and client costs. As for the amount paid to former Lieutenant Douglas, this was a settlement amount, not a court award, and will not be admissible evidence in the [REDACTED] case.

I will write again after I have reviewed the draft Statement of Defence in detail.

Yours sincerely,

W.A. Weatherston
Lieutenant-Colonel
Director of Law/Human Rights and Information
