[REDACTED] was re-interviewed on October 16th, 1959 but the only additional information he could offer was that as outlined in paragraph (d) of this report. He has agreed to give this matter further thought and will contact either Mr. TIMMERMAN or this office should he recall anything of value to us."

2. While some of this information is very indefinite, Mr. TIMMERMAN having been present at the main interview is aware of it and thus feel for record purposes that you ought to have this for your files.

(J.M. Bella), A/Asst. Comm'r,
Director of Security and Intelligence.
