

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. BRYCE

Security Cases Involving Homosexuality

I attach a revised version of the paper we discussed last week, in the hope that we might go over it in the next day or two. I have discussed it thoroughly with Harvison and Kelly of the R.C.M. Police and the comments they made are to some extent reflected in the present paper. Harvison appeared to agree with this general approach as a means of minimizing the risks to security, but I am in something of a quandry, as the written comments which I received from Kelly do not entirely reflect the views that Harvison put to me at our meeting last week. You may wish to look through these when we discuss the attached paper.

I apologize for the length, but at this point seem unable to make any drastic reductions. Perhaps you have some ideas on how this may be done and how the paper may be improved generally.
