MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WALL:

I SHOWed the Prime Minister your attached memorandum on your visit to Washington and he read it rather quickly but with interest.

One question he posed that I was unable to answer was how effective the polygraph is that the U.S. is trying to use like gentlemen. I told him I did not have any experience with these things. I think, however, if you can get any expert opinion on the usefulness of the polygraph from the Police or elsewhere, he would be interested to see it.
