D. S. I.

Re: ROCK BOTTOM

2. It is clear that, coupled with the evidence of WATKINS' homosexuality is of extreme importance and makes our case much stronger. We have no independent information regarding WATKINS' homosexuality, which compares in strength. (We have only an opinion by an admitted homosexual that he considers WATKINS a deviate because of his mannerisms).

3. It is apparent that if this case is to be discussed in all its aspects with External Affairs we would have to refer to I suggest, however, we do not have to identify to External Affairs.

4. Should you concur, I suggest that Mr.  be contacted by telephone as requested in paragraph 3 (a), and our need to discuss the with External explained to him.
