

CONFIDENTIALOFFICE OF
THE CHIEF OF THE NAVAL STAFF
OTTAWA

ZAG - 7 1963

Dear Mr. Wall:

I am pleased to be able to inform you that it will be possible for the Royal Canadian Navy to assist with the project discussed with you and referred to in your letter of July 5, 1963.

It is expected that Lieutenant-Commander J.C. Lawless can be made available in late August for a trial period of one year. I intend to review the progress of the project, and continued Royal Canadian Navy participation, again in the early summer of 1964.

Captain R.W. Murdoch, Director of Naval Intelligence, is prepared to discuss the detailed arrangements for Lieutenant-Commander Lawless, and the noted review of the project with you.

Yours sincerely,
