My dear Commissioner:

The Canadian Human Rights Commission has been studying the issue of sexual orientation as a possible inclusion as a proscribed ground of discrimination under the Canadian Human Rights Act.

As part of its continuing assessment of the issue, the Commission is interested in ascertaining policy positions adopted by organizations as far as the employment of homosexual persons is concerned. The position of the Force in this regard is pertinent to our current research, and we would be grateful for your advice.

Yours sincerely,

R.G.L. Fairweather
